

or tax bill, the chief bailiff shall publish such account or tax bill in some newspaper printed and published in said Montgomery county, at the expense of the taxpayer; and may, unless the same be paid within thirty days after the delivery or publication of such account, collect the same, with all costs, by distress and sale of the real and personal property of the delinquent, at public auction, after giving at least ten days' notice of such sale, in some newspaper in said county.

1884, ch. 208.

158. The president of the commissioners shall execute and deliver to the purchaser a deed of the property so sold, and such deed shall convey to the purchaser the said property, and shall be presumptive evidence that all the requirements of law have been complied with in making such sale and deed.

Ibid.

159. The chief bailiff shall make all collections required of him, and pay the same to the clerk within six months from the time the tax bill is placed in his hands.

Ibid.

160. He shall attend the meetings of the commissioners and perform such duties as they shall direct; shall preserve the peace and good order of the town, and for this purpose is invested with the same power and authority as any constable has under the laws of the State.

Ibid.

161. He shall have the same fees for making distress for taxes as are allowed county collectors, and for making arrests or serving process for violations of any ordinances of the corporation, the same as are allowed constables for similar services; and when the bailiff wilfully fails to discharge any duties of his office, he may be fined not exceeding ten dollars for any one offence.

Ibid.

162. The president shall preside at all meetings of the commissioners, and shall have all the powers of a justice of the peace in criminal cases where the commissioners are a party, and shall
